PRESS RELEASE FROM THE PREMIER, MR. DUNSTAN.

RIVERLAND GREEK INTERPRETER.

29.11.74

The State Government is now recruiting a specialist officer to serve the Greek community of the Riverland region, the Premier, Mr. Dunstan, announced today.

The position - carrying a salary of up to $9,000 - is being advertised by the Public Service Board.

Mr. Dunstan told a meeting of Greek-speaking grape growers in Berri last July that he would investigate ways of making such an appointment.

He said today that the officer appointed would be attached to the Community Welfare Department. He or she would be available to provide specialist interpreter facilities to growers and other people as well as undertaking general interpretation and community welfare work.
